About the Office for Campus Life:
The Office for Campus Life (OCL) at Tufts University seeks to build community and inspire the growth of the whole student by being a catalyst in their life through a support system of mentoring of individual students and student groups, leadership development, comprehensive and inclusive programming for all constituencies, and playing a key role in the active intersection of the curriculum and the co-curriculum. The Office’s main functions include the operation of the Mayer Campus Center and other student organization spaces, student organization management and advising, event planning, Orientation, and Pre-Orientation.

The OCL is committed to offering a meaningful experience in the field of student affairs that complements the academic rigors of pursuing a graduate degree. From student programming and event planning, to student organization advisement, leadership programs, and facility management, graduate interns will be exposed to various aspects of campus life, student affairs, and higher education. Our office has two graduate interns, Operations and Programming.

About Tufts University:
Tufts University is committed to providing transformative experiences for students in an inclusive and collaborative environment where creative scholars generate bold ideas, innovate in the face of complex challenges and distinguish themselves as active citizens of the world. With an undergraduate enrollment of roughly 5,500 students from around the world, Tufts' commitment to civic engagement and global perspectives creates a deep sense of community both on and off the campus. The University's size and structure enables students to access a challenging and supportive educational experience in close interaction with faculty, peers, and professional staff. A highly selective research university, Tufts is comprised of four distinct campuses locally in Medford/Somerville, Boston, Fenway/Mission Hill, and Grafton campuses, and maintains substantial programs abroad.
